This has been an extremely rewarding first year for the Cape Fear Chorale. The group has performed four concerts.

Next year's season will include three concerts, one in mid-November, one in mid-March, and one in mid-May. The music for the upcoming year's concerts has already been selected.

mid-November	Mass in E^b	Franz Schubert
mid-March	Requiem	Johannes Brahms
mid-May	a program of spirituals

If you are interested in becoming a part of The Cape Fear Chorale, please call 392-6905 to request registration information.

Thank you for your support, and we hope you enjoy the concert.

Jerry S. Cribbs

is in his seventh year as Director of Arts Education for New Hanover County Schools in Wilmington. Previously, he served as the choral director at John T. Hoggard High School and E. A. Laney High School. Mr. Cribbs has taught general music, band, and chorus from the elementary level through the collegiate level and has conducted numerous community choruses. He has served as choral clinician and choral adjudicator throughout the Eastern United States.

Mr. Cribbs is in his thirteenth year as Music Director at St. Matthew's Lutheran Church in Wilmington, where he conducts vocal and handbell choirs.

He received his Bachelors and Masters of Music Education degrees as well as Supervision Certification from East Carolina University in Greenville, North Carolina.

Gregory L. Bell

is organist at Messiah Lutheran Church and is staff accompanist in the Music Department at University of North Carolina - Wilmington. Mr. Bell has performed on six European tours with choirs from UNC-W, presenting programs in Germany, Austria, Holland and the United Kingdom. He also serves as pianist for Opera House Theatre, and was recently music director for two of the musicals performed by Opera House.

A special thanks to St. Matthew's Lutheran Church for the use of its facilities for rehearsals.
